MARCH ISSUE - 2017

PRESTON CAMPUS NEWSLETTER

Welcome to the Preston City Campus Conference and Events E-Newsletter with exciting news, special features and our fantastic monthly offer.

Meeting and Training Rooms

Are you looking for a diverse, multi-functional and adaptable space for your next meeting, conference or training event? We have a wide variety of rooms to hire in the Preston city centre. We have a long-standing history of providing venues and services to industry and the public sector for a variety of events and conferences with excellent customer satisfaction and high levels of repeat business.

No event is too big or small, and we can accommodate up to 475 delegates with additional catering and presentation equipment packages available upon request. We also have a choice of specialist rooms and facilities which include computer training rooms which seat up to 60, a mock court room, a 3D presentational theatre which can seat up to 450 and a cinema.

Have a look at our website for further details.

The Lancashire Science Festival Returns!

The multi-award-winning Lancashire Science Festival is back as it enters its sixth year, exploring science, technology, engineering, maths and much more. The festival is throwing open its doors to the public on Saturday 1 July, 9.00am-5.00pm.

The line-up consists of the UK's most popular firework scientist Matthew Tosh, who will be bringing his colourful and explosive world of pyrotechnics to the festival in his Science of Fireworks and FX Factor shows! Other exciting acts this year are, The Science of High Altitude Survival, The Cloud Factory and hilarious sci-fi theatre show What's the Matter?

The festival is free to attend. Check out the exciting line up on our website, and register for your festival pass, which will be available at the beginning of June.
