Which designs do you like?
How might these inspire you in your own designs?
Do you think the use of colour is effective?
Is your design going to have lots of different layers?
Do you want to use a particular material or texture?
Do you want your design to be practical as well as creative?
What is going to be the most interesting feature of your piece?
How are you going to choose what colours you use?