Now you have created your scene, we are going to take a look at the careers your creative skills can link to.

At UCLan, students can choose to study a number of creative courses, such as:

⇒ Art and Design
⇒ Animation
⇒ Theatre and performance
⇒ Music production and performance
⇒ Screen writing with film, television and radio

And many, many more!

What careers do you think studying the above courses could lead to?

For example: Fashion designer, interior designer, graphic designer, games designer, product designer, music producer, theatre/film producer, set designer, creative writer, screenplay writer etc. Accept any justified answers.

Select one of the careers listed above and write it here:

Accept any relevant career

What skills do you think are needed for this career?

For example: creativity, organisation, time management, literacy skills, communication skills. Accept any justified answers.

Which of these skills do you think you already good at, and which do you think you need to develop?

I am already good at this:                                                                 I need to develop this:

__________________________________                       __________________________________

__________________________________                       __________________________________

__________________________________                       __________________________________

__________________________________                       __________________________________