Now you have created your scene, we are going to take a look at the careers your creative skills can link to.

At UCLan, students can choose to study a number of creative courses, such as:

⇒ Art and Design
⇒ Fashion Design
⇒ Animation
⇒ Theatre and performance
⇒ Music production and performance
And many, many more!

What careers do you think studying the above courses could lead to?
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________

Select one of the careers listed above and write it here:
_____________________________________________________________________________

What skills do you think are needed for this career?
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________

Which of these skills do you think you already good at, and which do you think you need to develop?

I am already good at this:                                                   I need to develop this:
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________