

New Seminar Series 2016 / 2017

Enabling children and young people's participation - the role of adults and their relationship with children

29 March 4-5.30

The value of independent advocacy for children and young people
(Nigel Thomas and Julie Ridley)

26 April 4-5.30pm

Is AI really worth more than Jo? Transforming Schools through Intergenerational Relationships
(Deborah Crook)

10 May 4-5.30pm

When Mental Health Symptoms 'Talk Over' the Voice of the Young Person
(Lindy Simpson, Kirsten McLoughlin and Sam Young)

17 May 4-5.30pm

An open invitation to collaborate with The Centre
(Dan Moxon, Yasmin Perry, Pat Cox and Deborah Crook)

14 June 4-5.30pm

Pupils2Parliament
(Roger Morgan)

Seminars are free. Reservations can be made via Eventbrite as each individual seminar is advertised. This will allow us to notify you of late changes.