

Announcing our new Seminar Series for 2015-16:
'Children as Agents of Social Change'

4 November 4-5.30pm

Children's participation since the UNCRRC: What progress have we made?

Gerison Lansdown

(Independent Children's Rights Consultant and Advisor to the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child)

9 December 4-5.30pm

Reaching Safe Places: exploring the journeys of young people who run away from home or care

Jane Thompson

(Railway Children)

20 January 4-5.30pm

The stories, ethics and politics of research with marginalised girls living and working on the streets of Nairobi

Vicky Johnson

(University of Brighton)

10 February 4-5.30pm

'Being heard and influencing decisions in Lancashire: the long and windy road'. Perspectives from the local authority, the voluntary sector and from young people

Hannah Peake, Kate Baggaley and young people

(Lancashire Young People's Service and Barnardo's)

9 March 4-5.30pm

Herding cats! Children Research the use of Physical Restraint in Custody

Felicity Shenton

(Investing in Children)

13 April 4-5.30pm

The Children's Commission on Poverty - Through Young Eyes.

Suraya Skelland

(The Children's Society)

11 May 4-5.30pm

*Children: Media Partners and Change Agents.
An overview of a current initiative in Sierra Leone*

Bella Tristram

(Child to Child, UCL IoE)

2 June 4-5.30pm

The Lightless Sky - the story of his journey from a 12 year old Afghan refugee to UK youth activist

Gulwali Passarlay

29 June 10.30am-3.30pm

Facilitating the Themes – interactive day-long reflection and ways forward.

Gerison Lansdown, Cath Larkins, Nigel Thomas

Seminars are free, including refreshments. Reservations can be made via Eventbrite as each individual seminar is advertised. This will assist us with ordering refreshments and notifying you of late changes.

Co-Directors: Professor Nigel Thomas, Dr Cath Larkins

Administrator: Lorna Burrow Email: thecentre@uclan.ac.uk Call: +44 (0) 1772 893936