

SEMINAR SERIES 2013

CHILDREN AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

6TH FEBRUARY

Youth participation and the state: reshaping the machinery of governance with and for young people's voices

Greenbank Building

Dan Moxon, North West Regional Youth Work Unit

19TH FEBRUARY

Children and young people as active citizens promoting social justice

Claire O'Kane, freelance researcher and advocate
(Seminar delivered by videolink)

20TH MARCH

Muslim Children's Rights in a Cold Climate?
- Problematizing UK government counter-radicalisation strategies in the 'War on Terror'

Vicki Coppock, Edge Hill University

24TH APRIL

Where is the justice in criminal 'responsibilisation' and 'adultification'? Making a case for raising the minimum age of criminal responsibility

Barry Goldson, Liverpool University

1ST MAY

Dream-crushing, prejudices and revolving doors: challenging myths about young people who are NEET

Barry Percy-Smith, University of the West of England

23RD MAY

Plan B for Youth

Lisa Nandy MP, Shadow Minister for Children

The Centre for Children and Young People's Participation in Research www.uclan.ac.uk/cypp

All seminars start at 4.00pm in UCLan's Harrington Building, unless otherwise indicated.

Seminars will usually finish between 5.15 and 5.30pm. Following each seminar (5.30-6.00pm) there will be an informal network meeting of The Centre, to which all are welcome.

Refreshments provided.

To reserve a place please email:
socialwork@uclan.ac.uk

Follow us on Twitter:
@UCLansocialwork

