

BREXIT DEBATE

Should the UK remain a member of the European Union (EU) or leave?

Thursday 28 April 2016

Drinks and canapés at 6.30pm - Debate starts at 7.00pm - Free admission and parking
Darwin Lecture Theatre, University of Central Lancashire, Preston PR1 2HE

The EU referendum represents a once in a generation opportunity for everyone in the UK to decide whether we should remain a member of the EU or whether we should leave.

Join us for this Oxford Union style debate to hear from both sides, explore the options and put your questions forward to the guest speakers.

"We face a great opportunity if we leave. We can stop being Little Europeans and become Internationalists again."

Kate Hoey
Independent

"I want to see a social Europe, a cohesive Europe, a coherent Europe, not a free market Europe."

Jeremy Corbyn
Labour List

CHAIR

Fiona Armstrong, British television journalist

STAY SPEAKERS

Prof Mike Thomas, Vice-Chancellor, University of Central Lancashire

Mark Hendrick MP, Labour and Co-operative Member of Parliament for Preston

LEAVE SPEAKERS

Prof Philip B Whyman, Professor of Economics and Director of the Lancashire Institute for Economic and Business Research, University of Central Lancashire

Dr Mark Baimbridge, Senior Lecturer in Economics, University of Bradford

To attend register online

www.uclanbrexitdebate.eventbrite.co.uk

For enquiries contact Aimee Cairns on

01772 894032 or acairns2@uclan.ac.uk