Selected publications of Peter Anderson, Emeritus Professor of Journalism and its Political Context

Books

4) “Speaking the East, framing the East or shaping the East? A constructivist and critical discourse analysis approach to the communication of EU-Asia relations using case studies from selected international news media and EU
Chapters/papers in edited collections

Expert parliamentary/government reports produced with external funding

(i) Expert paper - on how the European Parliament might be brought closer to the citizens of the UK via the media and other means of communication, presented (by official invitation) at a Public Hearing of the European Parliament's Committee on Culture, Youth Education, the Media and Sport, Brussels, 5 December, 2000.

(ii) 21,000 words long research and advisory report - on an aspect of overseas press and information policy that is confidential to the UK FCO, commissioned, after competitive tender, in September 2001 and received by FCO officials in October 2001 (3,000 words were contributed by one of my PhD students, Aileen McLeod).
Peter led Uclan’s Communication, Cultural and Media studies team to success in the top half of the UK national league tables for research excellence in 2014.

Philippa Sherrington held academic posts at Cambridge Sixth Form College, where she was Head of Political and Social Sciences, Queens University Belfast and the University of Warwick, where she was given a Warwick award for teaching excellence, before her premature death in 2011. She is greatly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Frands Pederson (for whom Peter was a second supervisor) is currently a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Politics and International Relations at the University of Westminster.

Aileen McLeod was specialist adviser on the EU to the Scottish Executive for a number of years, before moving on to become Head of Policy to Alyn Smith and then Parliamentary Assistant to the Cabinet Secretary for Education. She was a Member of the Scottish Parliament between 2011 and 2016, having been elected as an SNP member on the South of Scotland list. She served in the Scottish government as Minister for Environment, Climate Change and Land Reform between November 2014 and May 2016.

John Price is now a Senior Lecturer in Journalism and Programme Leader for Sports Journalism at the University of Sunderland.

Sally Deffor is currently a Programme Director at Internews Network.